Walking Directions to Apheresis:

After parking, take the deck elevators to the 2nd floor. Turn right after you exit the elevator (valet check-in area located in front of you). Please take the crosswalk into The Kirklín Clinic of UAB Hospital. Once you enter The Kirklín Clinic of UAB Hospital, there will be a Starbucks coffee cart located on your left and a large Information desk just ahead of you. Continue walking straight (passing lab on your right). Look for the sign "UAB Hospital Infusion Therapy." Continue walking straight (passing a small information station on your left as you approach the skywalk). Take the skywalk, and make a hard left at the end. Please do not enter the North Pavilion. Follow the walkway (zigzagging, making right and left turns) until you see elevators on your left and the entrance to the 6th Avenue parking deck on your right. Overhead signs will direct you to Jefferson Tower. After you pass the elevators and deck entrance, take a left onto another skywalk. You are now entering Jefferson Tower. Follow the walkway around until you reach the end. Take a left (will see a set of elevators). Take those elevators to the 6th floor. When you exit the elevators, follow the sign that reads "Apheresis – JT N 678." Make a right towards the Apheresis unit. Apheresis is at the end of the hall on the right. Please check-in with a nurse or the medical office assistant to receive further instruction.
